STORYBOARD COMPETITION

Annually, the Storyboard Competition presents a unique opportunity for Agencies to educate others about the great work being done by Community Action in Florida. We invite all agencies to consider creating a Storyboard that shows how its agency is working to reduce poverty in the local community highlighting services provided that assist low-income citizens to reach economic security and self sufficiency. FACA is proud of the work that you do and welcomes all entries in this competition. Please include photos, newspaper articles, brochures, fliers or any documentation that helps to tell your story. Your agency does not have to be a FACA member to participate.

A panel of judges comprised of your peers will be selected to critique the entries. The winner(s) will be announced on Friday, May 10, 2013 during the Conference Closing Session and will receive one (1) complimentary conference registration for next year. We thank you for the great job you continue to do in your communities and hope to achieve maximum competition and participation this year with your support!

All entries must be delivered to the FACA Registration Desk by Wednesday, May 8, 2013 to be included in the judging. If your agency is planning to participate, complete and return the form below today.

FACA will not be responsible for any shipping and handling of the Storyboards to and from the hotel.

Please fax form to FACA at 850/224-5762 - Email to info@faca.org or Mail to:
