“We Are Community Action: Changing Lives through Excellence”

FACA 2017 Volunteer of the Year Award Guidelines

FLORIDA ASSOCIATION FOR COMMUNITY ACTION (FACA), INC.

Background

FACA presents a Volunteer of the Year Award each year to recognize distinguished and outstanding individuals, organizations or businesses whose voluntary service or contributions have had a significant impact on Florida’s citizens with low-income and the communities in which they live.

Eligibility

Nominations will be accepted from FACA’s member agencies for individuals, organizations or businesses that have made voluntary contributions of time and resources to assist the community action network. These contributions must help solve increasing agency needs for resource availability, including funding, personnel, materials and services.

Criteria and Selection Process

Individuals, organizations and businesses will compete on the same level. The period of eligibility is the immediate past CSBG fiscal year. Candidates will be judged on:

- 1) Volunteer work and contributions to the Florida CAA network; (25 points maximum)
- 2) Quality, quantity and impact of the contribution; and (25 points maximum)
- 3) Advocacy of the agency contributions in the community. (25 points maximum)

A committee will review nominations and judge each entry based on the candidate’s contribution and the application’s conciseness and completeness using a 100 point scoring scale. Five (5) points will be given for the submission of the completed attached Nomination Form; a maximum of twenty (20) points will be awarded for the Letter of Support. Therefore, each agency should make a comprehensive, clear and succinct case for their nomination(s). There is no limit to the number of entries that can be submitted. Photocopies of this Nomination Form will be accepted. Jacksonville, Florida 32202

Submission Deadline

Entries must be received by FACA no later than April 3, 2017 to be considered. For any further assistance, contact the FACA office at (850) 224-4774.

Award Presentation

The FACA 2017 Volunteer of the Year Award will be presented at FACA’s Annual Conference. The CAA Executive Director will be notified by the Awards Committee Chairperson prior to the Conference. The award winner or a person representing the individual, business or organization will be invited to attend the ceremony. The Nominating Agency must provide travel for the Award recipient.
