FACA MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

As a member of FACA, you will receive many benefits including access to an extensive network of service providers who share your commitment to increasing the economic security and self-sufficiency of Florida's low-income citizens.

NETWORKING AND COLLABORATION

FACA maintains communication and resource-sharing between member agencies, governmental departments, other social service providers and concerned citizens. FACA provides opportunities for information exchange at the state, regional and national levels. FACA's redesigned website will also hosts multiple resources and tools for networking and development.

TRAINING

FACA facilitates many training and technical assistance opportunities to help agencies build capacity and enhance service delivery that support the economic security and self-sufficiency continuum. FACA will implement a new Regional and Statewide Training model with training opportunities that will include:

- ❖ Board Governance
- ❖ Case Management
- ❖ Community Action Plans
- ❖ Community Needs Assessment
- ❖ Community Engagement
- ❖ Financial Operations and Oversight
- ❖ Monitoring
- ❖ Program Implementation
- ❖ Public CAA Specific Training
- ❖ Risk Management
- ❖ ROMA Next Generation

As a FACA member, it will be easy for your agency to remain current and well-trained at a minimal cost.

ADVOCACY AND OUTREACH

FACA provides opportunities for member agencies to participate in statewide and national discussions on public policy and other issues affecting their communities and organizations. Important aspects of FACA's ongoing policy development are:

- ❖ FACA Legislative Day (returning 2019)
- ❖ FACA Annual Training Conference
- ❖ FACA Website

FACA also provides Network advocacy through its membership in the NCAF, CAP and CAPLAW. In addition, FACA events, campaigns and programs generate positive publicity for member agencies.

Membership benefits also include, membership on the FACA Board of Directors and discounts on registration fees for the FACA Annual Training Conference and all FACA sponsored events.
